

TRADE with CUBA

Tuesday, May 17, 2016

Please join us for a breakfast meeting to learn about changes to U.S. regulations on commerce and travel to Cuba; and what the changes could mean for your business.

In addition to discussing what's next for the relationship between the U.S. and Cuba, we will also be focusing upon President Obama's visit Cuba.

Our guest speaker, Mr. John S. Kavulich, President of the U.S.- Cuba Trade and Economic Council, will provide observations about the commercial, economic and political landscape.

SPEAKER:

Mr. Kavulich is president of the U.S.- Cuba Trade and Economic Council, Inc. (<http://www.cubatrade.org>), a private, membership-based, not-for-profit, nonpartisan organization established in 1994 and headquartered in New York City, New York. The U.S.-Cuba Trade and Economic Council remains the most widely sourced business organization within the United States focusing upon the Republic of Cuba. Mr. Kavulich also serves as Editor of the organization's primary publication, Economic Eye on Cuba©.
